

Commission VI – Molecular/Cellular Physiology

J. Rettig organized several symposia on molecular and cellular physiology worldwide over the past four years. The communication within the committee turned out to be very difficult, only Dulhunty, Carafoli and Gadsby regularly replied. I would suggest a new composition of people, particularly in Latin America.